Make sex more fun--and better for you

We're all for spicing things up in the bedroom, but alas, it's easier said than done (and we're not even talking about getting him to willingly turn off football). The first wrinkle: Most sex-toy shops are so tacky they make you want to hide under the bed. And then there's the sketchy health factor: Most toys, candles, personal lubricants, and even lingerie contain not-so-safe chemicals that are decidedly unsexy.

But enough with the bad news. Here's the good: Some companies have taken matters into their own hands, making nontoxic products that enhance your sex life without enhancing your exposure to potentially harmful ingredients. Better still, they outperform their conventional counterparts.

1. Aloe Cadabra Natural Unscented Lubricant

Scan the ingredients of most personal lubricants and you'll find a host of unpronounceable chemicals and preservatives. Take a more natural approach with this plant-based lube made with organic Aloe Vera and a blend of natural ingredients that soothe and nourish. It's pH-balanced so it won't irritate, and it absorbs instead of leaving a sticky mess.
